Peter Lalor 1827-1889 migrated from Ireland to Victoria in 1852, attracted by the gold discoveries. A believer in private property and liberal institutions, he reluctantly but courageously led the miners' armed resistance to arbitrary rule at Eureka in 1854. Peter Lalor, February 5, 1827 - February 9, 1889 was the leader of the Eureka Stockade Rebellion, one of Australia's few violent protests and seen by many as the start of democracy in Australia.

The Eureka Rebellion, which is often called the Eureka Stockade, is a significant event in the development of Australian democracy and Australian identity. The李ureka Rebellion was a rebellion in 1854 instigated by gold miners in Ballarat, Victoria, Australia, who revolted against the colonial authority of the United Kingdom. It culminated in the battle of the Eureka Stockade, which was fought between miners and the colonial forces of Australia on 3 December 1854 at Eureka Lead and named for the stockade structure built by miners during the conflict.
